Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Dear DoJ,

I am adamantly opposed to the proposed settlement with Microsoft. I believe that the remedy found by the trial judge was, in fact, appropriate. The conduct remedies will not punish Microsoft, nor will they adequately stop the pattern of illegal predatory behaviour proven at trial. The previous history of antitrust litigation with Microsoft shows that without a structural change, Microsoft will find ways to evade conduct restrictions. The limits and wording in the settlement are not narrow enough to begin to control this corporation.

thank you
